ROOTED IN TRADITION DALLAS TO MONMOUTH

Explore local landmarks celebrating history, wildlife and wine.

Begin your day in nature at Baskett Slough National Wildlife Refuge, where you can wander through the expansive wetlands and oak savanna while observing an array of wildlife all year round. From here, take your best pick of blueberries, cherries, peaches or apples (depending on the season) at Perryhill Farm (12).

Take a lunch break at Left Coast Estate (13), known for sustainable winemaking, where you can enjoy a tasting flight paired with charcuterie, panini or wood-fired pizza on weekends. Next head to the Polk County Museum to learn about the early pioneer heritage of the area. Continue your Polk County history lesson as you make your way to one of Oregon's oldest and largest wineries, Eola Hills Wine Cellars (22).

Head to the quaint town of Monmouth, where you can choose one of three self-guided walking tours featuring the historic downtown, Western Oregon University Campus and Eastern Main Street Historic Neighborhood. Once you've walked up an appetite, wind down your day at Crush Wine Bar & Tasting Room (29), a local's favorite with an evolving menu, fun ambiance and large selection of Oregon craft beverages.

Relax with an overnight stay at the historic Mamere's Guest House (27), originally built in 1891. Family owned and operated, the house is warm and welcoming with each room artistically decorated. In the morning, enjoy a delectable breakfast you will not forget.

The numbers adjacent to business names indicate their listing on the map.

SCENIC SIPS & LOCAL BOUNTY WEST SALEM TO AMITY

Tour farms and restaurants along a picturesque countryside.

Jumpstart your morning at Brew Coffee & Tap House (20), serving locally roasted coffee and bites during the day and craft cocktails by night. Take your coffee to go as you walk through the West Salem Farmers Market (19), open Thursdays from May to mid-September, where you'll find fresh produce and handmade products. Don't forget to grab an artisan pie at Bountiful Pies (18) just a few steps away.

Continue to the picturesque Eola-Amity Hills and Bjornson Vineyard (10), where you can bring your own picnic to enjoy alfresco near the property's 20-foot waterfall. If you're in the mood for craft beer, stick to West Salem's Xicha Brewing (17) to indulge your senses in Latin American flavors and culture.

Make your way to Amity to Blue Raeven Farmstand (7), a must-stop for handmade seasonal pies and local goods. Next, take a scenic drive out to Brooks Winery (6) to sample award-winning sustainable wines in a rustic tasting room. Then visit Keeler Estate Vineyard (5) to savor the fruits of natural winemaking. Round out your afternoon with smiles at Wings & A Prayer Alpacas (1), where you can meet alpacas or shop for the softest socks and scarves you'll ever own.

Finish your day at The Blue Goat (3), an Amity favorite, and order dishes cooked with time-honored techniques – hearth breads, oak-smoked meats and fire-roasted entrees. Walk across the street to your top-floor flat for an overnight stay at Amity Flats (4), a restored historic Masonic Lodge, and sleep easy.

The Great Oaks Food Trail invites you on a culinary journey through one of the most beautiful and iconic regions of Oregon, the Willamette Valley.

This adventure will take you through small towns with big hearts and by family farms that take pride in working hard to preserve the integrity of the land, from the health of the soil to the restoration of the native great white oak savanna.

PADDLE, PARKS & PINTS DALLAS TO INDEPENDENCE

Relish in river views and small towns with big flavors.

Awaken your senses at Karma Coffee Bar & Bakery (23), located in a cute house in downtown Dallas. From there head to Roger Jordan Community Park, where you can stroll with your coffee around the creekside walking path.

Make your way to Monmouth for fresh pizza and a pint at Yeasty Beast (28), boasting 26 rotating taps. Nearby in Independence, enjoy a leisurely afternoon at Riverview Park either birdwatching along the Willamette River Trail or taking a mellow kayak adventure with rentals and shuttle service through Woodward Surf Co. Toast to your adventure at Rogue Farms (43) with a pint and tour of the hop farm.

Next treat yourself to something sweet on Main Street. Family-owned and -operated Melting Pot Candy (31) has crafted toffees, truffles and caramels for generations. Independent Ice Cream Shop (32) serves childhood memories in the form of cones, banana splits and homemade ice cream sandwiches.

Unwind and check in at the boutique Independence Hotel (34), where you can relax amongst nature-inspired décor and views of the Willamette River. Grab a small bite or glass of wine at the hotel's restaurant, Territory (35).

When dinner calls, consider Creole- and Southern-inspired cuisine at The Valkyrie Wine Tavern (39) or tasty eats paired with craft brews at Gilgamesh Brewery's newest location, The River (40). Save room for dessert and bubbly at Jubilee Champagne and Dessert Bar (38).
